CHAMBER'S ANNUAL BANQUET TO BE HELD NEXT WEEKEND

(St. Joseph, MO) -- The St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet will be held at 6 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 21, 2023. The 103rd Annual Banquet, which serves as an annual meeting for Chamber members, will be held at the St. Joseph Civic Arena. The event is presented by Commerce Bank.

The theme this year is "St. Joseph is a Treasure." Arena tables will be decorated with treasure chests featuring St. Joseph businesses and organizations.

The program will include presentations by 2022 Chairman of the Board Brett Carolus of Hillyard Companies and 2023 Chairman of the Board Don Tolly. Recognition will be given to businesses with significant Chamber membership anniversaries and Chamber Star Awards will be given to key volunteers.

The St. Joseph Arts Academy's Panorama and The Storybook Forest will provide entertainment during the reception from 6 to 7 p.m. Soca Jukebox will be the main entertainment after the dinner and program. Guests are encouraged to dress in formal or semi-formal attire. Dinner will be catered by Gina's Cafe & Catering.

Annual Banquet is open to Chamber members and their guests. Cost is $50 per person or $60 after Jan. 16, 2022. Members can register online at saintjoseph.com.

The media is invited to attend. Annual Reports summarizing the 2022 year for the Chamber will be available at each table.
